MEMORANDUM FOR: [REDACTED]

SUBJECT : Request for Advice

1. I have received your memorandum requesting advice on starting divorce proceedings. The information in your memorandum is not sufficient for me to advise you specifically as to the steps to be taken. However, nothing could be done until your return from the field. At that time I would be glad to sit down with you and hear the entire situation.

2. Your situation is one in which I have assisted others in the Agency and I feel sure when we have a chance to sit down together we can advise you more definitely. I might indicate to you now that in all likelihood if you do wish to pursue legal action, it will be necessary for you to engage an attorney in private practice to handle the matter. We have available for this type of situation a number of attorneys in the area who are fully cleared and competent to take the necessary legal steps.

3. No action will be taken by me at this time nor will any information concerning the situation be transmitted to anyone else. I suggest you be in touch with me as soon as you return. I am sure I can offer you some help.
